
Heather Kennedy Miner

Asset Management
New York

Heather is chief operating officer of Asset Management. She is co-chair of the Asset Management New Activity Committee and a member of the Asset Management Executive Committee, Firmwide Asset Liability Committee, the Americas Inclusion and Diversity Committee and the Firmwide Sustainability Committee.

Previously, Heather was global head of Investor Relations and responsible for all aspects of strategic engagement with shareholders, debt investors, rating agencies and corporate governance constituents. Prior to that, Heather served as global head of Strategic Advisory Solutions within Asset Management. Before that, she worked in Investor Relations in the Executive Office. Heather joined Goldman Sachs in 2003 in Corporate Treasury, where she managed firmwide funding initiatives. She was named managing director in 2009 and partner in 2018.

Prior to joining the firm, Heather worked at UBS in financial institutions investment banking.

Heather is a member of the President's Council of Sanctuary for Families and the Wall Street Council Executive Committee for Boston College.

Heather earned a BS in Finance from Boston College and an MBA from the Stern School of Business at New York University. She is a CFA charterholder.