

---

Kyle Williams

Legal
London

Kyle is head of the EMEA Corporate, Finance and Consumer Banking Legal Group. He is a member of the Structured Investment Products Committee and the Deposit Pricing and Acquisition Subcommittee, and serves as counsel to the Goldman Sachs International (GSI) Asset and Liability Committee and the GSI Bank Asset and Liability Committee. Kyle is also co-chair of the Firmwide Black Network in Europe. Prior to moving to London, he worked in Treasury Legal in New York for four years. Kyle joined Goldman Sachs in 2006 as a vice president and was named managing director in 2013.

Prior to joining the firm, Kyle worked for the law firm Davis, Polk & Wardwell in New York City in the capital markets and structured products practice groups.

Kyle is a member of the National Council for Washington University School of Law and serves on the Advisory Board for the New Silk Road Forum in London.

---

Kyle earned a BA in Finance from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona in 1996 and a JD from Washington University Law School in 2001.